WASHINGTON

May 18, 1974

Dear Director Colby:

For about a year the Council of Economic Advisers has benefited from daily briefings on world economic events conducted by [redacted] This service was arranged by Secretary Shultz in his capacity as Assistant to the President. During the past few months we have been joined in these briefings by Ambassador Eberle or one of his Deputies.

STAT

I am writing to request that, if possible, [redacted] be permitted to continue these morning briefings for the Council. We consider them extremely helpful to our work in developing economic policy, especially now that world economic and political influences are so important to the American economy.

Sincerely,

Herbert Stein
